Redburn expands Paris distribution team

London, 14th January 2019 – Redburn (Europe) Ltd, the independent equity research and execution firm, today announces the expansion of its Paris sales team with the hire of Jonathan de Pracontal.

In his new role, Jonathan will report to Margot Von Aesch, Head of Sales to Continental Europe and will be working closely with Francois Sperat Czar to continue to grow Redburn's presence with French clients. Jonathan brings 12 years of experience in equity markets. He joins Redburn from Kepler Cheuvreux, having previously worked at CM-CIC Securities.

Redburn opened its Paris office in 2016 and has been expanding its share of the market. This is the latest in a series of appointments to further strengthen Redburn's capabilities in mainland Europe.

Commenting on Jonathan de Pracontal's appointment, Margot Von Aesch, Head of Sales to Continental Europe at Redburn said: "We are looking forward to welcoming Jonathan to Redburn. Jonathan joins at a time when we are growing our European franchise and his wealth of knowledge of the French market – in particular hedge funds – will be a great asset to the team".

Jonathan de Pracontal added: "It is very exciting to join Redburn at such an important time in its history when high quality research is more important than ever. I've always been a firm believer of independent top-quality research services and I can't think of a company that is better aligned with my beliefs. I am looking forward to working with the team and growing our footprint in the French market".

Jonathan will be based in Redburn's Paris office and will start on 14th January 2019.
